

Kindergarten Bee News

Halloween

On Thursday, we will be parading through the school with our costumes. After parading through the school, we will exit the east end doors and walk across the back of the school. Although it may be cold, I will not insist that students wear coats as they will want to show their costumes and we will only be outside for a short time. Parents are welcome to watch our parade behind the school. If it is raining, parents will be invited into the gym to watch our parade.

Remembrance Day

On Monday Nov. 11th we will have a Remembrance Day assembly in the gym at 10:30. Parents are welcome to attend if they wish, but keep in mind that seating will be limited.

Upcoming Interviews

Interviews have been scheduled for November 14th in the evening and November 15th in the morning. Your interview time will be sent home on Friday Nov. 8th. We are looking forward to spending a few minutes discussing your child's progress with you at that time. A progress report will be coming home in your child's Teddy File on Nov. 13th.

What we are learning

In the month of October, we have been learning about shapes. In the month of November, we will be talking about patterns we see and patterns we hear. We will have a pattern day on Tuesday, November 19th. Have your child wear a patterned item of clothing or multiple patterned items.

Winter Clothing

Soon we will be putting on and taking off winter clothing several times per day. Help your child learn to be an independent dresser with all their winter clothing. Avoid boots or coats with removable liners. Also, label your child's clothing - especially snow pants since many snow pants look similar.

Running Shoes

Now that the children are wearing boots, make sure you send shoes to wear inside. These shoes can stay at school and will be kept in the cubbies.

Teddy Files

Please remember to check your child's Teddy File after each school day and help your child remember to return it to school every day.

Read Aloud Program

Just a reminder that each month, your child can pick a prize out of the prize box when they hand in a list of the books that they have read with you. (Books other than the grey readers). Simply list the titles of the books you have read for the month on any piece of scrap paper.
