March News

As the warmer weather is approaching please use good judgment when going near water and ice. Keep in mind the temperatures and the thawing ice.

School Council Meeting, all welcome Tuesday, March 3 at 6:30 pm

Pancake Day, Tuesday, February 25 – We would like to thank our volunteers for feeding us. As always, you've outdone yourselves.

Pink Shirt Day was a great day to pause and remember to be inclusive of all people. We took time to celebrate our unique traits. We look pass things that separate us and focus on things that unite us and make us all stronger.

Black History Month has passed, a time to focus our attention on the crucial role that many African Americans played in North American history. Have conversations with your child about a balanced view of world history and contributions of the many different peoples of the world.

March Break -- Whether you are travelling far or staying close to home, have a relaxing and enjoyable break! We will see you back Monday, March 23
