Message from GEDSB Senior Administration Work Sanctions Update

While there is a tentative agreement with the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario (ETFO), there is a transition plan that is being honoured that impacts Parent-Teacher Interviews.

Included in this transition plan is an agreement that the Parent-Teacher Interviews will not take place unless the teacher initiates the interview based on the student's level of progress. These interviews will be scheduled on Friday, November 13, 2015.

There will be no interviews scheduled during the evening of Thursday, November 12, 2015.

The PA Day will continue as scheduled on Friday, November 13, 2015.

Progress Reports will be sent home the week of December 7, 2015.

TURKEY DINNER
Once again we will be celebrating Christmas with a Turkey Dinner for all students. We will need several volunteers to make this event a success. A volunteer request form will be coming home later this month outlining specific tasks that volunteers can help with. Please consider helping to make this event a success

Port Dover Christmas Parade: For the first time, Walsh P.S. will have a float to enter in the Port Dover Christmas Parade. The theme for this year is "Story Book Christmas." The parade begins at 1 p.m. on November 21.

Thanks to healthy snack

Lunch program went well. Thanks for growing together with us and supporting the online banking system. Online banking allowed us to expand our lunch program by including Pita Pit lunches.

EQAO was cancelled this year as a result of the job action currently occurring.

Year end assembly. Volunteer appreciation, perfect attendance, Grade 8 grad recognition. Parents welcome

PLEASE REMEMBER WHEN YOU ARE PACKING YOUR CHILD'S LUNCH THAT WALSH PUBLIC SCHOOL IS A NO PEANUT OR NUT ZONE. DUE TO ALLERGIES IN THE SCHOOL CONSUMING PRODUCTS CONTAINING PEANUTS OR NUTS ARE PROHIBITED FROM THE SCHOOL. THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING TO THIS IMPORTANT ITEM.
