

Math Focus Boards include learning goals, success criteria, anchor charts and exemplars. Learning goals are curriculum expectations in student friendly language, success criteria are the steps students need to take to successfully achieve the learning goal, anchor charts are additional tools and strategies to support learning and exemplars are examples of work that follow the success criteria. Focus boards are designed to provide a central location for students to access necessary information.

